Partnering for sustainable communities

International Paper is a company of substance. So, when we launch a joint-venture to promote minority business enterprises (MBEs), we make sure the partner is solid, the jobs are real, and the opportunities provide substance to a community. We have formed a partnership with Integrated Packaging Corporation (IPCorp) – a minority-owned corrugated packaging company. IPCorp provides jobs in communities where they are needed most – making real differences to their customers, their employees and their communities. We call this partnership social sustainability. The people we're impacting call it life.

IPCorp is a place to launch careers

Real careers launched by developing marketable skills that provide opportunities for advancement at IPCorp and other major companies.

IPCorp is a place of opportunity

Real opportunity, for real work, that has a real purpose – making a difference for the world's largest CPG companies.

IPCorp is a place of new beginnings

New beginnings for a brighter future, new beginnings for a family, new beginnings make a difference – one opportunity at a time.

A commitment to this partnership is more than a Tier 1 spend, its a commitment to launch careers, opportunities and new beginnings.
